

Big Web Warehouse is constantly selecting and adding suitable products to its wide range targeted at the Home, Garden, Leisure, Health, Sport and Office sectors.

The products are offered for sale through Big Web's Internet shops to consumers & businesses and where appropriate, direct to conventional retailers, wholesalers and bulk users.

Selected products must have robust service support in place and be suitably packaged and labelled for transit either as units or in bulk. All purchased products are inspected prior to shipment by local Big Web Warehouse inspection teams.

FULLY INTERNET ENABLED

Big Web's secure sever enables manufacturers in China or India to see data for stock based in the UK and judge their production and shipments..

Internet retailing provides near instant adjustments to product price and positioning so exporters can measure performance without delays.
